Sunday 5th August 2018

Welcome to St John's. We hope you enjoy worshipping with us.

Theme: Laying a Foundation for Prayer.

Readings:

Esphesians6:18

And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people.

Psalm103:10-14

he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us. As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him; for he knows how we are formed, he remembers that we are dust.

Luke1:1-4

Introduction

Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, just as they were handed down to us by those who from the first were eyewitnesses and servants of the word. With this in mind, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I too decided to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.

1John5:14

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.

Praying for the Planet

Our monthly day to pray for the planet will be on Saturday 11th August. This time we are doing whatever we can to notice and respond to everything we love in our planet, to consciously appreciate it, love it, thank it and believe the best for it. Smile and dance in its loveliness and that love and joy will be as powerful as prayer.
