Sunday 21st October 2018

Welcome to St John's. We hope you enjoy worshipping with us.

Junior Church today at 9:45am in the Grundon Room.

Theme: Jesus is Superior: Our High Priest.

Readings:

Hebrews4:14 -16 and Hebrews5:1-10

Let us, then, hold firmly to the faith we profess. For we have a great High Priest who has gone into the very presence of God—Jesus, the Son of God. Our High Priest is not one who cannot feel sympathy for our weaknesses. On the contrary, we have a High Priest who was tempted in every way that we are, but did not sin. Let us have confidence, then, and approach God's throne, where there is grace. There we will receive mercy and find grace to help us just when we need it. Every high priest is chosen from his fellow-men and appointed to serve God on their behalf, to offer sacrifices and offerings for sins. Since he himself is weak in many ways, he is able to be gentle with those who are ignorant and make mistakes. And because he is himself weak, he must offer sacrifices not only for the sins of the people but also for his own sins. No one chooses for himself the honour of being a high priest. It is only by God's call that a man is made a high priest—just as Aaron was. In the same way, Christ did not take upon himself the honour of being a high priest. Instead, God said to him,

“You are my Son; today I have become your Father.”

He also said in another place, “You will be a priest forever, in the priestly order of Melchizedek.”

(Hillingdon, Uxbridge & Beyond!)

In his life on earth Jesus made his prayers and requests with loud cries and tears to God, who could save him from death. Because he was humble and devoted, God heard him. But even though he was God's Son, he learned through his sufferings to be obedient. When he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all those who obey him, and God declared him to be high priest, in the priestly order of Melchizedek.

ECO News

This week's plastic challenge: It's hard to believe that each person in England once got through 140 single-use plastic carrier bags in a year. Since the government introduced a 5p charge on the bags in October 2015, that figure is closer to around 25 bags each - a reduction of more than six billion bags. If you're still using plastic shopping bags when you go to the supermarket, start taking your own reusable cloth or canvas bags instead. You don't need to buy specially made bags for life or anything like that, either. Just a rucksack will do!

'REMEMBRANCE100'

On 4th August 1918, King George V called a National Day of Prayer. 100 days later, on 11th November, the war ended.

The 4th August 2018 started 100 days leading to the 100th anniversary for the end of the First World War.

We are looking at ways to mark the Armistice Remembrance Sunday Centenary Anniversary. Meanwhile, we are joining with 'Remembrance100' in marking the 100 days with prayers for peace and hope. Please join in praying with us each day, wherever you are. 100 Days of Peace and Hope is available with Bible readings, reflections and prayers for each week to download
